THE SURROUNDINGS CAPRI

A place of legend, home to the mythical Sirens, Capri is impossibly beautiful.

Replete with testimonies of its famous guests, the island is dotted with flamboyant villas and lush gardens. Adored by celebrities, intellectuals and the elite, a visit to Capri stays with you forever. Whether you are searching for remnants of its ancient Roman glory and head to fabulous Villa Jovis – once home to Emperor Tiberius, who loved the place so much that he had 12 villas built there – glitzy memories of the dandy who owned Villa Lysis, or wish to explore a superb garden and admire dramatic views from Villa San Michele in Anacapri, at the opposite end of the island, the sheer beauty of this piece of Dolomite that somehow landed on the Mediterranean will capture you. Made of limestone, its rock cliffs abruptly emerge from the sea, capturing the essence of a magic island. For moments of peace and tranquillity, head to Monte Solaro or the Sentiero dei Fortini, admire Via Krupp, a marvel of aesthetics, plunging down to the sea, while the world-famous natural wonder of the Blue Grotto is a triumph of azure colours in a superb game of lights that defies reality.

POSITANO

Seductive and dashing, the Amalfi Coast could well be Europe's most attractive stretch of coast, with narrow, winding roads that lead to incredibly picturesque, colourful villages perched on its shores. Loved by the jet-set, Positano is glaring and rich in fashionable boutiques, lying dramatically on a pyramid high above the water. Once a great naval power, Amalfi is truly scenic, with its quaint alleys and Byzantine-influenced, lavishly decorated cathedral up a sweeping staircase. Stylish and glamorous Ravello is "closer to the sky than the shore", built on a hill that grants unforgettable views.

SORRENTO

Few cities in the world inspire such fierce loyalty as Naples, a vibrant, fiery, noisy and proud city that captures with its honesty. Its history going back several millennia, Naples astonishes with dazzling art collections and countless frescoed churches. Savouring food here is an intense, gluttonous affair, while you could spend a lifetime perusing in the attractive artisan workshops and boutiques. And then THAT view of the Vesuvius across the bay, painted by countless artists, sung by adoring poets and admired the world over.

A Grand-Tour stop, Sorrento is the gateway to the Amalfi Coast and has welcomed everyone from Byron to Goethe, Ibsen to Dickens, who all fell for its charm. Time to go and explore!

NAPOLI

ISCHIA

The largest island in the bay of Naples, Ischia is a volcanic outcrop rising out of the sea in a cone-shaped series of hillocks. Famous for its thermal waters and lavish gardens, relax on its lazy beaches, cosy harbours and chestnut forests, along with secluded rocky spots where swimming in pristine, deep waters is a joy, then head to Monte Epomeo for divine vistas. With its pretty rainbow of coloured houses, Procida too grants some of the best views in the region from the Abbazia di San Michele. The Vivara Nature Park is home to unique flora and abundant birdlife, for an island where tranquillity and beauty live in unison.

PONZA

VENTOTENE

Dubbed “the Italian Hamptons”, these striking volcanic islands scattered across the sea between Rome and Naples are splendid. Ponza and Ventotene are the only inhabited ones, while evocative Palmarola is an unspoilt nature reserve. Coloured houses, white cliffs and emerald waters entice visitors who come here to enjoy untouched beauty, eat local delicacies and cruise around the islands’ craggy coastline, or simply wander aimlessly to discover unexpected gems with an unmistakable Italian flair.
