CAPRI

Ever since the Roman Emperor Tiberius brought the international attention to the island of Capri in 27 AD, the history of this volcanic, astonishing gem shining amid azure waters has gone from strength to strength. Impossibly beautiful, this is where the glitzy atmosphere loved by the jet-set lives in unison with natural wonders, fabulous villas are surrounded by lush nature, replete with bougainvillea, agaves, brooms and corals. Explore the historic part of the island, gaze at modern works of art from the sea, be amazed at famous grottoes, admire a captivating lighthouse, dine in an exclusive Beach Club, swim in sapphire waters and savour a glass of wine while looking at evocative Faraglioni. Surely La Dolce Vita couldn't get any better.

Not to be missed

■ Blue, Green, Red and White Grottoes ■ The Statua dello Scugnizzo ■ Tiberius' "jump" ■ The Natural Arch ■ Villa Malaparte from the sea ■ The Bay of Marina Piccola ■ Punta Carena Lighthouse ■ The Coral Grotto ■ The Faraglioni

LI GALLI

CAPRI & COSTIERA AMALFITANA

Visiting such a legendary place as Capri, where you can rub shoulders with the glitterati and experience Italy with gusto, is sensational, however adding a touch of the Amalfi Coast for your daily cruise is the real icing on the cake. Setting off from Capri, admire the famous Blue Grotto on this legendary island and enjoy its dazzling coast from the sea, then head to Nerano for a glorious lunch. Discover scenic Positano and admire its amazing position on a pyramid above the sea, then head to Amalfi, a former naval power that still stuns with its lavishly decorated Byzantine cathedral. On your way back, Li Galli is a pleasant surprise – aptly named Siranuse Islands in view of their spellbinding atmosphere, swim amid these three small islands to get a glimpse of the magic.

Not to be missed

■ Blue Grotto and Punta Carena Lighthouse, Capri ■ Praiano and the Emerald Grotto ■ Furore gorge ■ Amalfi Cathedral ■ Praiano ■ Swim around the Li Galli islands ■ Pick a lemon in Amalfi and taste the real Limuncello ■ Shopping in Positano ■ Pick a unique artifact from the local artisan boutiques
