EXPERIENCES YOU WILL TREASURE AT LENGTH

Suggestions for an unforgettable journey

We represent unique, extraordinary independent and privately-owned boutique hotels, villas and yachts in Italy. To promote the hotels we represent we take pride in creating travel suggestions and itineraries, where our local knowledge meets the needs and interests of travel advisors and clients. Make this your very own tale of discovery along this unique peninsula, whether your primary concern is art, architecture, archaeology or even fine dining and shopping.

Our goal is to introduce travel advisors to new products and act as a primary resource for information and assistance ensuring they receive all the support they need in real time. Having a “sample itinerary” connecting the properties gives something more solid and potentially concrete to promote, rather than a mere collection of hotels.

Extraordinary hotels, whose credo is painstaking attention to details, excellence throughout, and whose experience is one you will treasure at length. Light varying a thousand times in a day, sensational dawns and sunsets, ever-changing hues, the lull of the waves by the shore, a star-studded sky, savouring an outstanding meal: you will simply ask for more.

BARGA AND ALPI APUANE

day 1 / day 2 / day 3

The beauty of this area in northwestern Tuscany is the juxtaposition of mountains and the sea, rolling hills and medieval towns. All this majestic scenery can be contemplated by the wild and remote Apuan Alps soaring high and well visible from the coast. Carrara is the largest source of marble in the world and the place where you can sense history happening. The marble blocks for the Pietà of Michelangelo (Saint Peter's, Rome) comes from here. Head to Pietrasanta, also known as Little Athens, thanks to the concentration of artists who have decided to settle here. Among the best known in decades are Igor Mitoraj and Fernando Botero. Forte dei Marmi is an attractive resort where trendy shops and antiques fair, as well as music festivals, attract many visitors, who enjoy the beauty of the sea in a unique setting. >> ➤ Quaint, picturesque, scenic and pretty: Lucca has it all. Walk along fashionable Via Fillungo, with its series of trendy shops, before reaching sublime Piazza Anfiteatro, perhaps Tuscany's loveliest square, named after an amphitheatre that stood here in Roman times. Pisa and its leaning tower are so famous that you may be tempted to glance at the Campo dei Miracoli and move on; you should, instead, visit the epic Camposanto, the cemetery that was sadly heavily bombed during WWII and bestows an air of serenity and calm in an otherwise busy corner of the city. The Baptistery and the 11th c. Duomo are worth a visit. Further south, Bolgheri is famous for its epic cypress avenue and for the production of delicious Sassicaia.

day 4 / day 5 / day 6

Siena is not simply a destination — it is an experience to be lived slowly, with curiosity and reverence, revealing layers of history, ritual and timeless beauty.

Begin in Piazza del Campo, one of Europe's most extraordinary medieval squares. Its shell-shaped design invites you to pause, sit, and absorb the rhythm of local life. Twice a year, the square becomes the stage for the legendary Palio di Siena, a visceral and deeply emotional horse race that embodies centuries of rivalry, pride and tradition among the city's contrade.

A visit to the Duomo di Siena is essential. This Gothic masterpiece surprises at every turn — from its striped marble façade to the breathtaking interior adorned with works by Michelangelo, Donatello and Pinturicchio. Do not miss the inlaid marble floor, revealed only at certain times of the year, a true work of art beneath your feet.

Step into Siena's quieter soul at Santa Maria della Scala, one of Europe's oldest hospitals, now a vast cultural complex. Here, frescoed halls and ancient corridors tell stories of care, pilgrimage and human connection that span centuries. Beyond the city walls, Siena opens onto a landscape of rolling hills, vineyards and cypress-lined roads. A countryside escape into the Crete Senesi or nearby wine estates offers intimate tastings, slow lunches and unforgettable views — the perfect counterpoint to the city's artistic intensity. Siena's most meaningful experiences lie in its details: a coffee enjoyed overlooking a medieval street, a private guided visit after hours, the sound of church bells echoing at dusk. It is a city that rewards those who take their time — refined, authentic and deeply moving.

Not to be missed

- The Palio – seen from the inside
- Private Palaces & Contrade
- A guided visit The Duomo Floors
- Horseback Riding through the Tuscan landscape
- Truffle hunting

Buon appetito!

LA CERTOSA
DI MAGGIANO

An ancient 14th-century Carthusian monastery turned into a haven of charm: La Certosa di Maggiano is more than a hotel, it is a place for the soul. Just minutes from Siena's historic center, yet immersed in the quiet Tuscan countryside, the property blends the sacred spirit of its monastic origins with the timeless elegance of contemporary living. Each of the 22 rooms and suites is individually designed, narrating a story of natural stone, warm woods and fine fabrics, where timeless tradition merges effortlessly with refined contemporary design.
